

DOCKET NO. 3:97-CR-7-12-FDW

Defendant.

ORDER

Case 3:97-cr-00007-FDW Document 273 Filed 10/07/08 Page 1 of 2 term of imprisonment as a matter of right. See U.S.S.G. § 1B1.10 (Background).

In this case, the Court deemed it appropriate to give Defendant some benefit from Amendment 706, but also felt it necessary to ensure that Defendant served a period of incarceration adequate to achieve full rehabilitation and to promote respect for the law. The Court determined, in its discretion, that a sentence of 170 months was adequate, but no greater than necessary, to accomplish the sentencing objectives of 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), while a further reduction would frustrate those objectives. To the extent that Defendant's letter motion requests reconsideration of this action, it is DENIED.

The Clerk is directed to mail a copy of this Order and the Court's prior Orders concerning the § 3582 motion to the Defendant at the following address:

Michael O. Lockhart
Reg. No. 13020-058

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Signed: October 7, 2008
